

Partridge Pekin

Origin:	Asia
Classification:	True Bantam
Egg Colour:	White or Cream
Temperament:	Bold, Quirky and Friendly
Eggs per year:	140 - 160

This is a genuine bantam breed, very old and having no real relationship to the large breed of Cochins. It was imported from Peking in the middle of the nineteenth century, hence it's name. In recent years new colours have been added to the standard.
